

By registering for the VARTA® BATTERY TEST-CHECK PROGRAM services Johnson Controls Power Solutions EMEA will be collecting the following data from you: Company contact data the name of a contact person. This data is collected and stored for the purpose to publish this data on the website so that customers can search and find participating workshops and to transfer this data to wholesalers of Johnson Controls in order to contact you.

In addition an e-mail address will be collected for the purpose of sending a regular (currently monthly) newsletter about our services. This data will neither be used nor transferred to any third party for any other purpose.